HSBC DANCES INTO THE HEART OF RINGWOOD COMMUNITY

HSBC Australia's newest branch opens in Eastland Shopping Centre

HSBC, the leading international bank in Australia, has expanded further into Melbourne's eastern suburbs with a new branch in the Eastland Shopping Centre in Ringwood.

The Eastland branch features an open-plan design, a Quick Bar with iPads for a speedier service and luxury finishes to offer customers a premium banking experience.

Graham Heunis, Head of Retail Banking and Wealth Management, HSBC Australia, said: "We're thrilled to become a part of the vibrant Ringwood community. The eastern suburbs is home to many of our customers and we look forward to supporting more local customers with their banking needs."

HSBC offers a full suite of banking solutions, including a market leading home loan rate of 3.65% p.a. (3.66% p.a. comparison rate), credit cards, personal loans, foreign currency accounts and high interest savings accounts, and support from a dedicated Relationship Manager. HSBC's Premier proposition caters for high-net worth individuals and can provide customers with access to HSBC's Private Banking service.

A traditional lion dance was held on 4 December to formally open the branch, paying tribute to HSBC's Hong Kong heritage, and international connections.

Customers can also take advantage of HSBC's opening promotions exclusive to the Ringwood branch including $100 credit for account openings* and free coffees with local café Laurent Patisserie.
