HSBC has been operating in Australia since 1965.

We are the sole remaining international bank that does retail, wholesale and investment banking in Australia.

Australia is only 1.3% of the world's population, yet it's 12th ranked for global GDP.

We are ranked first globally for median household wealth, and we have a pension industry of AUD 3.5 trillion, making it the fourth largest on the planet.

Australia is a truly unique market. 52% of us were either born overseas or have a parent born overseas.

At HSBC Australia, we don't let geography define our relevance.

Our superpower is our ability to connect clients across international corridors.

We know how to navigate complex situations, allowing Australian customers to explore the globe and bringing global names to Australian opportunity.

We have 2,000 people in Australia and our people reflect the customers we serve; diverse, multicultural, multilingual and highly capable.

My hope is that HSBC continues to organically grow in this part of the world safely, customers first and become the leading employment place for people that want a financial services career.
